• 30 April 2002

AUSTIN, Texas -- Touchscreen supplier Touch International Inc., seeking to enhance its North American sales efforts, has named Greg Fagioli vice president of North American operations.

Fagioli will be responsible for driving sales, expanding sales channels, and implementing customer service standards at Touch International, which spun off from TouchSystems Corp., in March.

Before joining Touch International, Fagioli was president of The Tronex Group Inc., a manufacturer's representative for information displays and other electronic products across the Southern U.S., for eight years.
